Personal Language Training

How fit is your language?

Do you want to learn a language from scratch or regain your former confidence and skills working your own way, at your own pace? Or may be you've learned informally,at different times and need something tailored especially for you enhancing the skills you want to develop.If so,why not have the help of a qualified personal language trainer?

Personal Language Training

Our personal training service guarantees you:

- Free consultation at your home or office
- Personalised Training Plan
- Ongoing support
- Progress Portfolio
- Expert,qualified language trainers
- Results or your money back to ensure you establish a language journey that is exciting, challenging and rewarding and will help you achieve the results you want.

Fluentintuition offers a flexible approach to personalised language training providing you with fully qualified, personal trainer who will travel directly to you. Working to your goals using their personal language training experience to ensure you get the best out of your language session and that you stay the course to achieve the level of fluency and skills you desire.

Your Personal Training Plan

If you'd like to find out if Personal Language Training is for you why not book a free consultation,initial assessment,advice and guidance?Call 01483 768500 or email info@fluentintuition.co.uk

Cost: Free,no obligation

Initially we like to meet up with you in person at your home or workplace,or if you prefer at our Woking centre. During an informal chat with a language specialist you can discuss and assess your training needs:what you want to achieve, when and how you want to achieve it. The session is totally free.

We offer different pricing options to suit all types of budget and time flexibility: fixed rate Platinum,Silver Express,Holiday and Wedding packages; block-booking rates; monthly payment options; and bespoke plans for those who require the flexibility of a wrap-round Prestige Programme.

After the consultation we will provide you with an Outline Training Plan detailing initial assessment,scheduling and estimate of costs. When you begin your training you will receive a Personalised Training Plan including:

- Initial assessment outcomes – your current level of knowledge and skills and learner profile
- Course aims and intended learner outcomes – your goals, what you want to achieve
- Course scheduling – the practicalities: when, where, how often
- Review and Progress report dates – monitoring and feedback on your progress
- Charges – a fixed calculation of fees depending upon your payment preferences.
