

Objectives

The first day will allow attendees to use the program's powerful functions for basic web development. Building on this, the second day aims to produce proficient Web designers.

Prerequisites

Attendees should be familiar with PCs and have a basic knowledge of the Internet and Web Page structure.

Duration

2 day

The topics covered on the course are,

Basics

1 Introduction

- The Web and HTML
- The Dreamweaver Environment
- Code Assistants

2 Getting Started

- Creating a Web Site
- Creating Documents
- Page Properties

3 Page Content

- Document Structure
- Importing from Microsoft Office
- Check Spelling

4 Tables

- Data Tables
- Table Formatting
- Table Accessibility

5 Site Navigation

- Links
- Named Anchors
- Image Maps
- Navigation Bars

6 Style Sheets

- Cascading Style Sheets
- External Style Sheets
- Link Styles

7 Publishing

- Web Site Publishing

Advanced

8 Files / Templates / Libraries

- The Files Panel
- Creating and Using Templates
- Library Items

9 DOCTYPE and Meta Information

- The DOCTYPE Property
- What is Meta Information

10 Rollovers/Flash/ Behaviours

- Create Rollovers
- Embed a Flash Movie
- Apply Behaviours

11 Forms

- Web Forms
- Form Validation

12 Layers

- Applying Layers
- Layer Behaviours

13 Basic Animation

- Timeline Animation

14 Database-driven Web sites

- Recordsets
- Master/Detail Pages
- Search Functionality

15 Browser Compatibility

- Testing for Compatibility Problems
- Looking for Code Errors