

Information Security Management Systems Lead Auditor Training Course (IRCA 2016)

Who Should Attend?	Aims and Objectives
The course is intended for all those who wish to undertake and eventually lead audits of Information Security Management Systems (ISMS). It is also useful for those interested in the implementation of ISO27001 Prior Knowledge of Information Security Issues would be beneficial.	To enable delegates to Undertake external audits and lead audits of ISMS. To explain to the delegates the purpose and planning procedure of making systems secure. To ensure delegates understand the importance of organising and reporting their audit findings.

Expected Outcomes.	Course Outline
On successfully completing the course, delegates will be able to: • Appreciate the importance of controlling Information Security in all types of business. • State the requirements and scope of ISO 27001 • Identify the document management systems required to control Information Security • Evaluate risk assessments for Information Security • Effectively plan and undertake an audit • Produce reports of their audits identifying non conformances against the standard. This course is accredited to the IRCA and on successful completion a certificate will be issued to the delegate which will be valid for 3 years.	• Introduction to Information Security • Detailed content of ISO 27001 • Similarities with other management systems – OHSAS 18001, ISO 14001, and ISO 9000 • ISMS issues including operational control. • Information Security Audit Skills • Practical exercises and feedback • Case study and workshops Appraisal of the delegates' knowledge and performance will be made through a combination of continuous assessment and a written examination (multiple choice and short answers). Duration: 5 Days Cost £1,800 plus VAT Max. no. of delegates:10

This course is run in association with Bureau Veritas under IRCA Course No. A.17207

FIASA

Specialising in Computer forensics and IT security, Fiasa is a solution to companies seeking both IT security advice and digital forensic investigation of computers and IT equipment. We recognise that organisations of all sizes face challenges in protecting their systems and data. Now more than ever, protecting your systems and the sensitive data stored on them is an essential part of ensuring a healthy client base. We can assist you by providing real, practical advice and professional services. Our directors have a wide mix of experience and skills to meet the demands that companies face in this complex field. From forensic data recovery through to training and court presentation, Fiasa offers a range of services customised to your specific needs.

Bureau Veritas

Since its foundation in 1828, the Bureau Veritas Group has consistently built recognised expertise, helping clients comply with standards and regulations relating to Quality, Health & Safety, Environment and Social Responsibility.

The Group's network of regional and local offices manages client relationship and delivers a comprehensive range of services including inspection, testing, auditing, certification, ship classification and related technical assistance, training and outsourcing. When appropriate, Bureau Veritas also provides advisory services.

Large and small organisations, whether private or public, can rely on Bureau Veritas to support them in protecting their respective brands, assets and business. We play a key role in both risk management and performance improvement.

Bureau Veritas deploys multidisciplinary skills from over 40,000 employees in 900 offices and laboratories worldwide.

Course Tutor: Victor H Parry Chartered Fcipd

IRCA Registered Principal Auditor ISMS.

Vic has 19 Years in Banking experience followed by 8 Years with the British Standards Institution.

Whilst at BSI Vic became the project manager for promoting and informing organisations globally of the Information Security Management System (BS7799:1999 part 2 now ISO 27001:2005). Vic delivered courses for Lead Auditors against this standard throughout Asia, Europe, The Middle East and the UK. He enabled lead assessors from all the major registration bodies gain an understanding of the requirements for ISMS and also worked extensively with several of the world's largest banks.

As an independent consultant Vic has facilitated many organizations smooth progression to achieving compliance to ISO 27001:2005, formally, (BS 7799 part 2-1999) using a systematic, dynamic approach.

Vic is now Bureau Veritas' first choice for all related ISMS training. He has trained ISO 27001 Lead Auditors all over the world including:

Japan, Hong Kong, Korea, Taiwan, Singapore, United States, Italy, Germany, Austria, Greece, Spain, Finland, Iceland, France, Czech Republic, Slovenia, Latvia, United Kingdom, Holland, Portugal, Malta, Switzerland, The United Arab Emirates.

Accommodation

The cost of accommodation is not included in the course fees. The class is held in a country house hotel in a calm and pleasant atmosphere conducive to a good learning environment. Delegates can, if they wish source their own overnight arrangements. However we have negotiated a rate with the hotel that will allow delegates to stay in a relaxed setting without having to drive or look for evening meals.

By contacting the hotel direct and quoting the reference FIASA, delegates can avail themselves of a DB&B rate of £85 per night per person.

Refreshments and lunch will be provided during the working day as part of the class.

Contact: Jo-anne Taylor, Northop Hall Country House Hotel
Tel 01244 823017, Email: Jo.Taylor@northophallhotel.co.uk

