Action Management - 1 Day

Action Management

Action Management is a unique business development programme that utilises the communication skills used by Hypnotherapists, Change therapists & Solution Focused practitioners. It is presented by an experienced business manager, salesman who also spent many years in front line therapeutic practice.

Aims of the course

One problem is much like any other problem and whatever it takes a resolution has to be found. The same communication skills and models used in challenging therapeutic situations such as Solution Focused Therapy & NLP can be a huge benefit in business too. By the end of the day you will have practiced and learned the skills used to help those in crisis and applied them to your own business model.

Client groups

The day is presented to management team and groups from all types of industries. Business managers, salespeople and those dealing with the public have all benefitted from the increased communication and problem solving skills this training provides
