Excellence In Security

3rg's Hostile Environment Close Protection Operators (HECPO) conversion course is specifically designed for students who already have close protection training. The course is designed to raise the standard of traditional close protection training to the next level, allowing students to operate safely and effectively within challenging theatres around the world.

Why 3rg? With 16 years of Close Protection training & operational experience, within both the military and commercial sector, we are ideally suited to give students that extra knowledge to operate within Hostile Environments.

Course criteria

- Level 3 Close Protection certification from a recognised awarding body.
- In date FPOSi certificate
