

Objectives: To analyze the principles of Global Ethics and World Religions and identify how they influence in international business and in the globalization process.

Duration: minimum two years, maximum three years

The first academic part of the Doctorate in International Business (DIB) programs are focused to study specific subjects. Once finalizing, the student develops the thesis (12 months, can be extended to 28 months)

Fees: 3.710 Euros. Consult availability of Scholarships.

Language: . Also available in  DIB Religiones or  Religions

Program:

- 1- Globalization and International Business
- 2- Intercultural negotiation
- 3-World Religions
- 4- Global and / or regional Religions
 - Buddhism: Mahayana, Theravada, Zen, Vajrayana
 - Christianity: Catholicism, Protestantism, Orthodoxy
 - Islam: Sunnis and Shiism
 - Judaism
- 5- Religions of India
 - Hinduism
 - Jainism
 - Zoroastrianism
 - Sikhism
- 6- Religions of China / Asia
 - Taoism
 - Confucianism
- 7- Other Religions and/or philosophies
 - Agnosticism
 - Baha'i Faith
 - Animism
- 8- Principles of global ethics model
- 9- International Business without corruption
- 10- Research methodology
- 11- Thesis

Addressed to: graduates and working professionals who wish to continue their professional career in the field of International Business applying the principles of Global Ethics con un with a deep knowledge of religions and their influence on the way of doing business.

Prerequisites

To Hold a Master's degree or have a minimum of 3 years work experience in the field of international business. All those who do not holds a Master or sufficient experience, can study first the Master in Foreign Trade \(MIB\) of EENI, and after access directly to this Program of Doctorate. in this case, when the student finish the study of the MIB will not require a thesis as this will form part of the final thesis of the Doctorate in Global Ethics, Religions and International Business.

Diploma

Students who pass the evaluation will obtain the diploma DIB DOCTORATE in Global Ethics, Religions and International Business.

EVALUATION: To pass the Doctorate in International Business specialization Asia students must perform a number of tasks on completed units and overcome with a minimal score of 6 points the final thesis (which will be exposed via Skype).